

Title V

Title V (Senior Community Service Employment Program) is a federally funded job training program for mature workers. Program participants gain work experience through subsidized employment and then transition to unsubsidized jobs.

New Title V participants must be:

- 55 years old or older
- King County residents, including Seattle
- Unemployed and low income

Eligible workers are placed in jobs with employers who are registered with the Mayor's Office for Senior Citizens.

Title V participants work 15 to 25 hours a week.

To make an appointment, call (206) 684-0500 between 9:00 a.m. and 3:00 p.m. weekdays.

Age 55+ Employment Resource Center

The Age 55+ Employment Resource Center helps older workers find jobs.

The Center also finds training for older job seekers who need to upgrade their job skills.

Each year, more than 400 Employment Resource Center clients receive job placements. Services are free to both job seekers and employers.

Services for the Age 55+ job seeker include:

- Employer outreach
- Training resources, including computer classes
- Computer access for resumé writing and Internet research
- Individual job coaching
- Monthly employment workshops
- Job listings
- A 24-hour telephone jobline
- Web site: www.seattle.gov/humanservices/mosc/age55/

The Employment Resource Center provides support for the older worker. One-on-one job counseling is provided by a peer counselor — someone who has “been there” and understands.

Businesses throughout Seattle and King County can recruit employees through the Age 55+ Employment Resource Center. Call the 55+ Employment Resource Center for referrals of experienced, dedicated, and reliable job applicants.
